WSU Foundation welcomes new development director, Marya McCrae

Marya McCrae has joined the Wichita State University Foundation as the new director of development for the Fairmount College of Liberal Arts and Sciences.

McCrae is a graduate of Concordia University in Seward, Neb., and comes to the WSU Foundation with 20 years of fundraising experience. She has worked for educational and health organizations in both major gift and planned gift capacities. For the past eight years, McCrae has been with the Sanford Health Foundation in Sioux Falls, S.D., where she played a key role in securing gifts for a $32 million campaign to build the Sanford Children's Hospital.
