Announcing the January 30, 2019 Reception, Dinner & Speaker Program

Supply Chain in a Tax Reform World

Please join us as we discuss the latest in supply chain planning, including tax-related supply chain considerations for multinationals impacted by the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act and the OECD Base Erosion and Profit Shifting initiative.

Date: Wednesday, January 30, 2019

Venue: Wichita Marriott, 9100 E Corporate Hills Dr., Wichita, KS

(Please note the special Wednesday meeting date!)

Featuring: Jonathan Eaton and Carl Kenyon

Mr. Jonathan Eaton
Principal,
Advisory Services,
Grant Thornton LLP

With more than 20 years of Supply Chain experience, Jonathan has spent the majority of his career advising large multinational companies and middle market companies across multiple industry sectors on how to best transform their supply chains. Jonathan is most recognized for his ability to help clients define their supply chain strategy in response to changing market conditions and other disruptive forces. He subsequently helps them transform their supply chains to provide higher customer satisfaction while balancing their inventory and service commitments and minimizing their total supply chain costs. He also has significant experience with turnarounds, post-merger integration, divestitures, and technology implementations.

Mr. Carl Kenyon
Senior Manager,
International Tax Services,
Grant Thornton LLP

Carl leads the Houston International Tax practice and works closely with Grant Thornton Wichita's team on international tax matters. Carl advises both U.S. and foreign based clients on the tax implications of transactions and investments that cross international borders. His experience includes cross-border M&A transactions, repatriation planning, international tax structuring, tax compliance, and tax accounting. He has assisted clients with navigating the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act, including BEAT, GILTI, FDII, and foreign tax credit changes. Carl has served as a manager in London for Ernst & Young and as a long-term secondee to the tax department of a fortune 500 company.
