

Women Working for Peace in Korea

Our featured speaker is Dr. Nan Kim from the international peace organization Women Cross DMZ (Demilitarized Zone between North and South Korea). She is Associate Professor in the Department of History at the University of Wisconsin–Milwaukee, where she is the Director of the Public History Program and the Faculty Co-coordinator of the Asian Studies Certificate. She is the author of Memory, Reconciliation, and Reunions in South Korea: Crossing the Divide (2017).

Friday, February 8, 7:30 pm,
Wichita State University,
Rhatigan Student Center
266 PIKE ROOM - Free and open to the public

4 Million people died in the Korean War of 1950–53, most of them Korean civilians

10 Million families are still separated by the Demilitarized Zone

70 Million Koreans live in a state of war due to unresolved conflict

60+ Years after the war ended with a temporary cease-fire agreement, we're still waiting for a peace treaty

$1 Trillion is spent by USA, China, Russia, Japan, and South Korea on militarization, fueled by unresolved conflicts

Sponsored by Peace and Social Justice Center, Global Learning Center and Wichita State University Center for Women's Studies