PASM Symposium

WSU Sport Management Partnership for the Advancement of Sport Management presented Telling Stories and Documenting Sport Experiences on Thursday, April 30. This year's symposium featured five presentations from students and practitioners.

Presenters included Eric Scribner, Moussa Traore and Cody Howe all Sport Management graduate students. Krysti Carlson Goering of Wichita State University and keynote speakers Laura Hartley and Jordan Poland from the Kansas Sports Hall of Fame.

The Partnership for the Advancement of Sport Management (PASM) was established by Wichita State University's Department of Sport Management in 2013. PASM seeks to increase the opportunities for interaction among community members, sport practitioners, students and faculty, and to provide a forum for people to connect with sport-related topics and to develop solutions for sport-related issues, problems, or barriers.
