

Higher Education Track. Many graduates of our counseling program may find employment in higher education settings for a variety of positions in student affairs such as admissions and student advisement by completing the higher education counseling track. Students who complete the Higher Education Counseling track are eligible to apply to the Ed. D. in Educational Leadership.

Higher Ed/Student Affairs Counseling 45 Credit hours
CLES 810 Educational Research (3)
CESP 803 Counseling Theory (3)
CESP 804 Foundation of Counseling (3)
CESP 824 Counseling Techniques (3)
CESP 821 Multicultural Issues in Counseling (3)
CESP 802 Counseling in Human Development (3)
CESP 822 Assessment in Counseling (3)
CESP 815 Career Development (3)
CESP 825 Group Counseling (3)
CESP 835 Psychopathology and the DSM (3)
CESP 857 Professional and Ethical Issues in Counseling (3)
CLES 871 Foundations of Higher Education (3)
CLES 873 College Student Development and the Campus Environment (3)
CLES 875 Practicum in Higher Education Leadership (3)
Electives (3)

Electives:

CESP 811 Principles of Measurement and Program Evaluation (3)

SMGT 801 Management in Sport (3)

CLES 872 Finance and Human Resources in Colleges and Universities (3)

CLES 874 Legal and Ethical Issues in Higher Education (3)