Why did you decide to do the teaching program in Paraguay?

I had always wanted to go abroad, but never felt I had the time or money to make it happen. This program was perfect in a few different ways: it was affordable and the timing was just right. As soon as I heard about the culture of Paraguay during the presentation, I knew it was a country I wanted to visit and that made the decision to take part in the teaching program even easier.

What was the best part about your experience in Paraguay?

Can I have more than one "best part"? From the people to the school I worked at to the culture in general, this experience was one I won't ever forget. If I were to pick one specific part, it would be my host family -- they embraced me as another member of their family and I always felt loved and appreciated.
