Carolyn McCoy

Carolyn McCoy started her career at Wichita State University in 1997 and, through hard work and dedication, moved up through the ranks to her current position as Manager of Training & Quality Control in Facilities Services.

Carolyn has an extraordinarily strong work ethic. She takes immense pride in her work and goes above and beyond.

Her professionalism, dedication, determination, and devotion to this university make her a very valued employee. She has a deep compassion and kindness toward others and genuinely cares about the faculty, staff, and students of WSU.

Carolyn, your friendship, hard work and loyalty are greatly appreciated.

Thank you for your contributions to Wichita State University.
