Info & Tips to Help Navigate Your Results

What happens after course evaluations are done?

Results: Side Note

- The “Semester’s project” refers to all courses evaluated in a semester. CES uses the course’s part-of-term to run its processes, but everything is combined into one project.
- The graphics used in this presentation may not have the same Project Titles or similar data. They are just used to help visualize the information.
- This information may seem overwhelming at first. Believe me, it gets easier when you get used to using the Watermark Dashboard.
- Some things may evolve over time, either with Watermark upgrading their product or us learning new ways to get necessary information.

Results General Information

- Course evaluation results open to instructors on the Friday after grades are due to the Registrar's Office.
 - The Fall 2023 date was December 22nd
- An email from WSU Evaluations was sent to those instructors who had a course evaluated in the semester's project.
 - The email provided a link to view results. It also provided a Response Rate Table listing the courses and the response data.
- Courses that were merged in Blackboard will have merged results.

- Via Blackboard – Tools – CES box – Instructors Dashboard appears
- Results can be accessed from the Project Results Widget and from the purple ribbon bar.

Project Results Widget

- Semester project results will only appear in the widget if there is adequate data to compile the results.
 - There will be no results for courses with no student responses or if the number of responses is less than 5.
- If the instructor has insufficient number of responses for all courses, one or both statements would apply to them.
 - “Note: Courses with response rates lower than the threshold set up by your Administrator may not be displayed below.”
 - “No Courses Found”
- If the instructor had a course without enough responses but other courses did have enough responses, the courses with data will be listed.

Scenarios Regarding Results

Basically, there are three different scenarios regarding results.

1. All courses evaluated have data for results.
2. No courses evaluated have data for results.
3. Some courses evaluated have data for results.

All courses evaluated have data for results

- Access results via widget by clicking the semester project link or by clicking Results in the ribbon bar.

The screenshot displays the 'watermark Course Evaluations & Surveys' interface. The top navigation bar includes 'Home', 'Results', and 'Manage Courses', with 'Instructor' on the right. The 'Response Rate Tracker' shows 'FA23 Main Course Evaluation' with 'Responses/Enrollments' at 0.00% (0/68) and 'Daily Responses' at 0. The 'Project Results' table lists two projects:

Project Results

[redacted] 202310	[redacted] tr 11:00:00 [redacted] (Fall 2022)	[redacted] 202310

The 'Manage Courses' section on the right indicates 'No Courses found.'

- The project names will include the semester and year followed by Main Course Evaluation, unless they were a pilot group.

No courses evaluated have data for results

- If you have no courses listed, the below screen will appear and display the statement of “No Courses Found.” This statement will be shown when there are no responses collected (meaning 0 students responded) or the results are unavailable due to the result restrictions per policy.

The screenshot shows a web interface for 'Project Results' under the heading 'SP23 Main Course Evaluation Pilot'. A note states: 'Note: Courses with response rates lower than the threshold setup by your Administrator may not be displayed below.' Below this is a table with the following structure:

Course Code	Title	Unique ID	Report
No Courses Found.

- You can do a print screen or screen capture to save this statement for future reference or you can always follow these steps to locate it at a later date.
- If you would like to download information to show you requested course evaluations, but not enough data was available for a result report, you can follow the instructions on How to Retrieve Response Rate Information.

Some courses evaluated have data for results

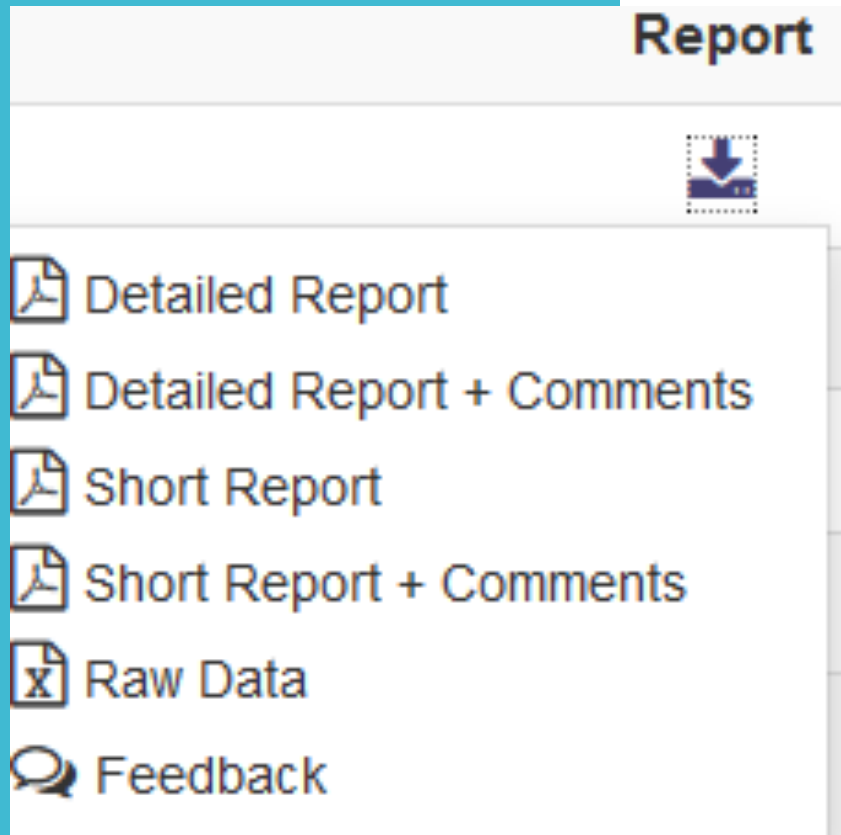

If you have both scenarios, such as some courses appear with results while other courses do not appear, then the below statements might apply to you regarding the missing courses.

The instructor opted out (deleted a course) from having course evaluations administered. Therefore, the course is not listed as it is no longer in the system.

If the instructor did not opt-out from having course evaluations administered, but insufficient number of responses occurred, the course will not be listed. In addition, there will not be a statement provided as shown in the previous slide.

The process for results for this scenario can use the previous two scenarios' procedures.

Types of Reports

- All reports will show the course's individual mean, median and standard deviation. It will also show the statistics by university and division.
- The bottom of the report will show the means of means from the instructor questions and then by the course questions.
- Some of the counts may be different question to question if a student didn't answer each and every question.

The information not labeled as University or Division is the course results for that question.

The displayed information is for each question – distribution of responses and the percent. Data includes information regarding the mean, median and standard deviation.

Raw Data

- When you select the option Raw Data it will create the Excel file for that course.
- The downloaded Excel file will contain data about the user responses, including timestamps and course information.
- It will show in the RawData tab the data from each student without any identifying information.
- The QuestionMapper tab will show what the questions are in the evaluation.

Batch Reporting

- To generate a batch report, select more than one course section and click on Batch Report when you are in Project Results.
- It will ask you a few questions. Example of a screen below. The screen that will appear for you will be updated.
