

START YOUR REWARDING CAREER IN HIGHER EDUCATION

📌 MASTER OF EDUCATION IN EDUCATIONAL PSYCHOLOGY: HIGHER EDUCATION/ STUDENT AFFAIRS TRACK

Wichita State's Master of Education in Educational Psychology is a highly customizable program that'll help you upgrade your career—or start a new one. If you have a passion for working in higher education/student affairs, the program now offers a specialized track to equip you for successful roles in a diverse range of university settings.

📌 REAL-WORLD EXPERIENCE FROM CAMPUS LEADERS

At Wichita State, students in every major have unmatched opportunities for applied learning and research. As an M.Ed. student, this means you have the option to apply your knowledge in professional settings through a series of eight-week practicums—helping you build the practical skillset that employers are looking for. Classes are taught by full-time faculty or administrative staff members.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:

Teri Hall, VP Student Affairs
TERI.HALL@WICHITA.EDU
or call (316) 978-3021

WICHITA STATE UNIVERSITY

📌 COURSEWORK

Educational Psychology Core:

CESP 704 - Introduction to Educational Statistics
CLES 801 - Introduction to Educational Research
CESP 811 - Program Evaluation (substitute for 823)
CLES 873 - College Student Development & the Campus Environment
CESP 820 - Learning Theory & Instruction
CESP 831 - Social Psychology for Educational & Helping Professions

Higher Education/Student Affairs Requirements:

CLES 871 - Foundations of Higher Education
CLES 874 - Legal and Ethical Issues in Higher Education
CESP 821 - Social Justice Issues in Higher Education
CLES 876 - CAPSTONE Current Issues in Higher Education and Student Affairs Admin
CLES 875 - Practicum in Higher Education Leadership

📌 FOR ADMISSION INTO THE M.ED. PROGRAM, YOU MUST FIRST BE ADMITTED INTO THE GRADUATE SCHOOL BY SUBMITTING:

- A completed graduate school application
- Official transcripts with 3.0 GPA for the last 60 hours
- Evidence of academic competence

📌 ONCE ADMITTED TO THE GRADUATE SCHOOL, THE DEPARTMENT REQUIRES YOU TO SUBMIT:

- Contact information for three references
- A résumé including:
 - educational background
 - job experience (with dates)
 - relevant volunteer experiences (with dates)
 - undergraduate/graduate extracurricular activities and personal interests
 - email address
- One-page statement of your professional goals and research interest