One of the 10 will be selected as the Undergraduate Student of the Year and will receive an additional $1500 scholarship ($2000 total for winner).

Requirements & Scoring

Round 1: Application Round

An initial screening of applications will take place to ensure all applications materials are received in their entirety and formatted correctly. Applications will be scored as follows:

I. Online Application: 70 Points

a. Essays: 50 Points

Essays will be judged according to the candidate's ability to communicate ideas on the essay questions provided. These will be listed in the online application.

b. Academic Strength: 20 Points

A set number of points will be awarded for cumulative GPA according to the following scale:

- i. 4.00 = 20
- ii. 3.90 – 3.999 = 17
- iii. 3.750 – 3.899 = 15
- iv. 3.600 – 3.749 = 13
- v. 3.450 – 3.599 = 11
- vi. 3.300 – 3.449 = 9
- vii. 3.150 – 3.259 = 7
- viii. 3.000 – 3.149 = 5
- ix. 2.900 – 2.999 = 3
- x. 2.750 – 2.899 = 1

II. Resume: 30 Points

a. Consistency and Format: 5 Points

- i. Reads clearly, articulately, and concisely. Submitted in PDF Format. No longer than 2 pages.

b. Grammar and Spelling: 5 Points

c. Award Criteria Representation: 20 Points

i. Student Engagement Experiences

List university-related involvement (e.g., student organization leadership, peer mentoring, athletics participation, fraternal organizations, honor societies, etc.). Please include the name of the organization/experience, years active, any leadership position held, the date(s) of leadership position(s) held, and a brief description of personal responsibilities and activities within each organization, not those of the organization as a whole.

ii. Campus Honors and Awards

Please list all honors, awards, and/or scholarships received during the candidate's college career. Candidates should briefly explain each honor, award, scholarship, etc. listed.

iii. Other Campus Involvement

Please list any relevant campus involvement (i.e., research with faculty, campus job/employment, service/volunteerism, etc.).

iv. Graduate Program Participation (if applicable)

List any activities you are part of concurrent with your individual program. (e.g., Research, Field Experience, Internships, Thesis, etc.). Briefly describe the activity, its purpose, and your role or level of engagement.

- v. Non-University Involvement
This category includes other commitments, work experience, community service, non-WSU organizational activities, or other groups the candidate might have been involved in or associated with, that can provide the judges with a better idea of who the candidate is as an individual.
- vi. Tip: Consider reformatting your resume to specifically highlight the requested sections.

III. Letter of Recommendation Received:

- a. One letter of recommendation is to be submitted for each candidate. If additional letters are submitted, the first letter received will serve as the official letter of recommendation.
- b. Applicants that do not receive a letter of recommendation will be disqualified.

Round 2: Interview Round

This category allows judges to learn more about the candidates. If selected for this round, be prepared to be available to interview Monday, March 18-Friday, March 22 between 8am-5pm. This is the only time interviews will take place.

I. Interview – 50 points

- a. Areas to be judged include:
 - i. The candidate's ability to answer questions efficiently and the manner in which the candidate conducts themselves during the interview.
 - ii. Candidates will be judged by a panel of approximately three to five judges. Each interview will last a maximum of 30 minutes with judges asking questions of each candidate based on the information provided on their application & presentation.

Round 3: Final Presentation Round (Senior Honors and Graduate Student of the Year Finalists Only)

I. Presentation – 50 points

Each finalist will present an 8-10-minute presentation to a panel of judges on why they should be chosen as this year's winner. Following the presentation, the judges will move immediately into a brief question and answer period. The total session will be 20 minutes each.

Presentation topics to address include:

- i. Introduce yourself and explain your engagement experiences both on campus and in the community throughout your time at Wichita State.
- ii. What has been your proudest accomplishment throughout your collegiate experience?
- iii. What has been your most difficult struggle and how did you overcome it to get where you are today?
- iv. Where would you like to see yourself in the next five years?
- v. How has your engagement on campus and in the community contributed to your ability to achieve your future aspirations?

Note: While judges are given a common scoring rubric, each judge evaluates the candidates individually and scores accordingly.

Student of the Year Competition Frequently Asked Questions

Q: Can past Man and Woman of the Year, Student of the Year, or Graduate Student of the Year candidates and finalists apply for the Student of the Year competition?

A: Those who have made it to the interview round of their respective competition may apply again, but past finalists and winners are not eligible to apply.

Q: Who can/should write the letter of recommendation?

A: Someone with credibility should write the letter. Faculty and staff from institutions which you have had a working relationship with, an employer, or an advisor of an organization you are a member in are good options. Keep in mind the letter of recommendation is part of the Overall Impression score.

Q: How are candidates chosen for interviews?

A: There will be an initial screening of applications to determine which applicants will move on to the interview round. Take care to ensure that you submit materials in the requested formats and complete all required forms. Failure to do so is the primary reason candidates are removed from the process in the initial screening.

Q: Can I apply if I am studying abroad this semester?

A: Yes. We can make accommodation to conduct both the interview and presentation rounds through video conferencing software.

Q: Can I apply if I am employed through Wichita State?

A: Yes. This scholarship competition is open to any student who meets the minimum criteria regardless of employment status.

Q: Can I apply if I am an online student?

A: Yes. If you meet the minimum criteria and are currently enrolled at Wichita State, you are eligible to apply.
