

Wichita State University Housing and Residence Life Contract Terms and Conditions

For the purposes of this contract, the term “University Housing Facilities” refers to student housing facilities operated, owned, or leased by Wichita State University. The terms “applicant” and “resident” refer to the student or person who signs this contract regardless of whether the individual actually resides in a University Housing Facility, or not. This document is a contractual agreement between the applicant and the WSU Housing and Residence Life Department for housing, to reserve a space within University Housing Facilities; however, this contract does not guarantee a specific building or room. Housing and food service are made available to residents for the specific purpose of personal residence and may not be sublet or used by residents or outside agencies for any commercial purposes. This contract is not assignable or transferable without the permission of Wichita State University (please see section VI.e. regarding contract transfer exceptions below). Cancellation fees will be applied for terminating this contract based on dates in section VI below.

  - i. Interim housing over winter break will allow students to reside in university housing facilities (between fall and spring semesters). Residents will be required to sign up for interim housing, and/or may be relocated to a specified building and/or floor during this break. Residents who do not sign up for interim housing by the given deadline may incur a late sign-up fee.
  - ii. Interim housing for the winter break between fall and spring semesters begins on the Friday after Final Exams end set by the university’s academic calendar and will only be available to residents returning to the university housing facilities for the Spring semester. Students will be billed for this period in accordance with the rates and payment schedule specified by the university.

III. FOOD SERVICE

- a. BOARD OPTIONS: Residents of all university housing facilities are required to purchase a residential meal plan each semester. Residents may change meal plans one time each semester (deadline dates for this request will be listed on the Housing and Residence Life website). All approved meal plan changes will go into effect beginning on the Friday after the change is made. Meals are billed weekly from Friday through Thursday. If no meal plan is selected through the self-selection or assignment process, the default meal plan (Unlimited Access w/$75.00 Dining Dollars) will be assigned to the resident.
- b. MISSED MEALS: The university takes into consideration that the average resident may be absent for a certain number of meals and sets the rates accordingly. For this reason, no contract adjustments or refunds will be made for missed meals, or unused Dining Dollars at the time of contract end or cancellation.
- c. MISUSE/SUSPENSION OF MEAL PRIVILEGES: Meal service provided under this contract is for use by the resident only. Residents who allow any other individuals to utilize their meal plan via their university ID card may be subject to disciplinary action. The university may suspend meal plan privileges if the resident fails to make payment on time or fails to abide by all the terms of this contract. Housing and Residence Life will determine when and whether to reinstate meal plan privileges.

IV. PAYMENT

- a. APPLICATION FEE: A non-refundable $75.00 application fee must be submitted either before, or concurrently at the time of submitting the prepayment as outlined below. This fee is utilized in part to pay for community and operating expenditures, utilities, staffing, capital expenditures, major remodeling and improvements and debt service on university housing facilities. The application fee is non-refundable unless Housing and Residence Life is unable to offer any housing space within university housing facilities.
- b. PREPAYMENT: A $200.00 prepayment must be submitted with this contract (even if the resident will be receiving financial aid). A room cannot be reserved without prepayment. The prepayment will be applied toward housing charges and is not refundable in the event of cancellation after June 1.
- c. PAYMENT SCHEDULE: The resident agrees to pay the university for housing and food service in accordance with the rates and payment schedule specified by the university.

- i. Room and board payment for housing and food service is due in full at the beginning of each semester (when tuition payments are due); or the resident will be automatically entered into an installment payment plan with Financial Operations.
  - ii. Subject to Kansas Board of Regents' policy, the university reserves the right to modify housing and board rates when deemed necessary with thirty (30) days' notice to the resident.
  - iii. Any charges or fees the resident has incurred for damage, lost access key/cards, improper checkout, etc. must be paid by the resident.
- d. FINANCIAL AID: Residents who receive any type of financial assistance (scholarships, loans, grants, etc.) will have their financial assistance applied first to tuition and fees, and then to room and board until these obligations are completely met with the university for the entire semester; regardless of the monthly installment plan.

- f. DISPUTE OF CHARGES: A resident who wishes to dispute any room or board charges assessed during this contract period must do so in writing to Housing and Residence Life at Housing.WSU@wichita.edu and within sixty (60) days of fee assessment.

V. ROOM ASSIGNMENTS

- a. PRIORITY: Priority for all university housing facilities is primarily established by the date the completed housing contract, application fee, and pre-payment are received in accordance with the deadlines set by the Housing and Residence Life department. The university's acceptance of this contract does not guarantee a specific room assignment. Eligibility will be verified prior to assignment. The university reserves the right to cancel contracts and room assignments of students declared academically ineligible.
- i. Any applicant completing the prepayment after June 1 may not be guaranteed an immediate room option within university housing facilities and may be placed on a waitlist. Upon room options becoming available, these open spaces will be offered to waitlisted students.
  - ii. The addition to the waitlist is not a guarantee of future room options becoming available, and temporary housing options may or may not be provided. Should a waitlisted student wish to cancel their contract prior to being assigned a university housing facilities space option, they will be required to complete the Cancellation Request Form, through their myWSU portal, and the application fee and prepayment will be refunded per section IV, a.

- b. PREFERENCE: Preferences indicated in the online application may be utilized by the Housing and Residence Life department to assign rooms if the resident does not participate in the room self-selection process. Preferences are requests and are not to be understood as contract stipulations. A specific room assignment based upon a resident's request is not guaranteed or implied. Roommate/suitemate requests are not guaranteed, and do not constitute an automatic reason for reassignment after room selection/assignment has been completed.

- e. ROOM CHANGES: Residents may request a room change no earlier than two weeks after the first day of classes, and no later than the Friday preceding Study Day. Changes in room assignments may be made only with the approval of the Assignments Coordinator and Residence Life Coordinator of the respective building when space is available.
  - i. Residents changing rooms must complete their move no later than the deadline set by Housing and Residence Life. Failure to do so may result in the forfeiture of a move or, if necessary, the moving and storage of resident's belongings at the resident's expense.
- f. CONSOLIDATION OR REASSIGNMENT: The University reserves the right to make assignments for administrative expediency or as considered necessary for repairs, pest treatment, or in the interest of the residents' health safety, welfare, including reassignments in either University Housing Facilities or designated temporary housing within university housing facilities or off campus due to resident quarantine, or where disciplinary sanctions require reassignment.
  - i. If housing demand or requirements for reassignment exceeds capacity, the university reserves the right to use designated temporary room assignments within university housing facilities or off campus pending reassignment/relocation. This includes the right to consolidate or separate resident assignments as needed. The university reserves the right to move room assignments at any time to accommodate a student with unique physical requirements, or to accommodate any required quarantine of residents as necessary due to health or safety concerns.
  - ii. Consolidation may also include moving residents into a contracted single room to move together during a contract period. Options depend upon availability at the time of consolidation. Room changes may include being billed at a higher rate for the new room cost.
